

2026 EASO Award Application Form – New Investigators

Personal Information

First Name

Last Name

Country of Residence

Email Address

Nationality

Year of Birth

Gender

Which EASO affiliated national obesity association are you a member of ?

Are you PhD/MD?

Has the majority of your work and research taken place in Europe?

Awards and Presentations

Please list any significant awards you have won in the past 5 years

Please list oral presentations you have presented at a major congress/conference in the past 5 years

Please justify in no more than 300 words why you should be considered for the New Investigator Award in [Category] based on a description of your main research achievements to date in relation to obesity

Please list the top 5 publications where you have had a significant authorship role, describing your role using CRediT (Contributor Roles Taxonomy) terms and clearly indicating if you are the 1st or last author. Note the ranking of each journal listed using the SCImago ranking system (Q1, Q2, Q3, Q4)

Research Grant

What is the problem or knowledge gap to be addressed with the grant (please include specific research questions)?

What methods will you use to answer your research questions and why? Please highlight any innovation

How would you involve patients or citizens in the development and conduct of this research?

What real-world impact could this research achieve (e.g. on obesity related health, policy, practice)?

Work Experience (most relevant and recent)

Start/End date

Occupation or position held

Main activities and responsibilities

Name and address of employer

Type of business or sector

Education and Training (most relevant and recent)

Start/End date

PhD Start/End dates

Title of qualification awarded

Principal subjects/ occupational skills covered

Name and type of organisation providing education and training

Please upload a copy of your CV